

Writing a book review

When you write a book review think about the following questions:-

- WHY did you like or dislike the book?
- Was it the story, the characters or the illustrations (pictures)?
- How did it make you feel?
- Who else would like to read it – who is it aimed at?

