Can you use describe the picture using prepositions? Remember that a preposition is a word that tells you where something is in relation to something else eg. below, beside, above.

An example to help you:

From the window above the archway, a young lady is stretching to hang out her washing.